PRESS RELEASE

New York's Newest Private Jet Facility Opens Its Doors to Super Bowl XLVIII Attendees

Long Island, New York – January 14, 2014: Talon Air, Inc., New York's newest premiere full service FBO opens its doors to Super Bowl XLVIII attendees. Long Islands' Republic Airport (FRG) offers easy access to the New York City metro area, while avoiding the congestion and restrictions associated with Teterboro (TEB), Newark (EWR) and Morristown (MMU) Airports. In addition to using Talon's world-class private 100,000 sq ft facility, arriving aircraft will enjoy concierge handling, guaranteed hangar space, and ramp access for plane-side ground transportation.

"Many clients flying in for the Super Bowl will be staying in The Big Apple to take advantage of its deluxe hotel accommodations and world renown restaurants." said Jason Sanders, Talon's Director of Safety. "Our location provides them access to the City and all it has to offer while avoiding the inevitable bottleneck and chaos associated with the main event."

Take advantage of Talon's new Wi-Fi Equipped Sikorsky S76 Executive Helicopter, Mercedes Sprinter, Cadillac Escalade or Chevy Suburban's to transport guests in and around New York City. Avoid the congestion, ground delays and overall liability associated with other airports on Game Day.

To learn more about Talon Air or to make a reservation for the Super Bowl please call (631) 753-8881. Our Client Assurance team is ready to coordinate your VIP Super Bowl experience.
